Guide #4G – CALIFORNIA BAR STUDY GUIDE

---

ABOUT THE BAR EXAMINATION

The three-day California bar Examination is administered twice a year, in February and July. The Bar Examination is composed of three parts: six essay questions, two performance test questions, and the Multistate Bar Examination. For more information, please see the Law Library's web page at www.ggu.edu/lawlibrary/studentstudyaims/barexam.

CALIFORNIA BAR EXAM COURSE PREPARATION CLASSES

A comprehensive bar exam preparation course is an absolute necessity for success, especially for first-time bar takers. First-time takers are recommended to choose either BAR/BRI or BARPASSERS for comprehensive review, supplemented by the PMBR system for MBE preparation.

BAR/BRI

BAR/BRI claims to be "the nation's most experienced, most personalized, and most up-to-date bar review course." "BAR/BRI combines comprehensive, yet concise outlines, dynamic law school professors, and the most complete Multistate and Essay Testing programs to give you the best chance of passing your bar exam the first time." www.barbri.com/

Barpassers

BarPassers Bar Review is a diverse bar review company delivering innovative programs to California law students and bar exam candidates. First introduced in 1985, BarPassers uses materials and techniques developed over the past 25 years. <http://barpassers.com/>

PMBR

PMBR teaches essential MBE strategies and techniques. PMBR teaches nuances and subtle distinctions which are now common on the MBE. PMBR simulates actual MBE testing conditions. www.pmbr.com/
