Areas of Concentration
Students in the LLM in US Legal Studies Program

Immigration Law
1. Required: LAW 842A Immigration Law (3 Units)

2. Students must complete an additional 13 units from among the following courses, for a total of 16 units:

   - LAW 811 Administrative Law (3 Units)
   - LAW 842B Business Immigration Law (2 Units)
   - LAW 801A Constitutional Law I (3 Units)
   - LAW 801B Constitutional Law II (3 Units)
   - LLM 366C Contemporary Issues in International Law (3 Units)
   - LAW 838C Federal Courts (3 Units)
   - LAW 842D Immigration and Refugee Policy Seminar (2 Units)
   - LLM 364 International Human Rights Seminar (3 Units)
   - LAW 885B Women’s Employment Rights Clinic (1-3 Units)
   - LAW 885S Women’s Employment Rights Seminar (3 Units)

3. Students may complete a substantial academic research paper in the field of immigration law, either in connection with certain courses listed under requirement #2 or through a faculty-supervised directed study project.

4. Students may complete 1-4 units of Curricular Practical Training or clinic as part of the 16 units required to complete the Immigration Law Concentration.