GGU4YOU

GGU4YOU is the university's Web-based student information system. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration at www.ggu.edu. JD students who need a waiver of rules will not be allowed to use Web registration to exceed the maximum units for their program types: 16 for students enrolled in full-time programs or 12 for students enrolled in part-time programs. Students will not be allowed to use Web registration for courses that require associate dean, program director, or instructor approval for enrollment.

All students should ensure they are able to login to GGU4YOU. Students will need to use their accounts to obtain exam numbers and to view grades and program evaluations. Students who do not know their user names or passwords should go to www.ggu.edu/law/ggu4you for assistance. Students who still are unable to login should send a message to lawhelp@ggu.edu requesting assistance.

PRIORITY REGISTRATION INSTRUCTIONS

Priority registration is available to all degree-candidate students. Priority registration for JD students is made available by anticipated graduation date, as indicated in the table below. Students are encouraged to utilize Web registration via GGU4YOU at www.ggu.edu during the priority registration periods listed in the table. Students who use Web registration may make schedule changes immediately. Students who submit hard copy registration forms may not make schedule changes until their original forms have been processed.

Students should obtain any necessary approvals prior to submitting registration forms.

The Law School Registrar's Office staff will process hard copy registration forms during the same dates that Web registration is made available to each group of students below. Forms submitted in person will not be processed before those that are mailed or before online registration. All forms received prior to the processing period for a group are randomized before processing. Forms received prior to or during the processing period for a student's priority group will be processed with that group. Forms received after the processing period for a student's priority group will be processed during the next period or during General Registration, whichever comes first. Statements of Charges will be mailed to all students who register via paper form. Statements are not automatically mailed to students who use Web registration, but are available upon request from the Registrar's and Financial Aid Offices. Once their registration has been processed, either online or manually, students may view the courses in which they are registered by selecting "My Course Schedule" from the "Student" menu in GGU4YOU.

Group Number	Priority Group Members	Online priority registration & hardcopy processing start date
1	December 2009 JD graduation candidates, all LLM & SJD students	Monday, June 22
2	May 2010 and July 2010 JD graduation candidates	Monday, June 29
3	All other continuing JD students	Monday, July 6

EXPRESS REGISTRATION

"Express Registration" is a faster way for students to register online than using the "Search and Register" page. Students can use this page if they already know exactly which courses they want, to quickly add them to their "Preferred Sections List." All course sections available for online registration include an "Xpress ID" number. The numbers are published in the Course Schedule and on the GGU Web site.

JD STUDENT EMPLOYMENT LIMITATIONS

ABA Standard 304(f) prohibits JD students from being employed in excess of 20 hours per week during any week in which the student is enrolled in more than 12 semester units. (Hours worked for clinic credit are not counted towards the 20 hours.) The School of Law prohibits first year full-time students from being employed at all. Failure to comply with these requirements may be considered a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct. Full-time upper division students who anticipate that they will be employed more than 20 hours per week during the semester must request a change to the part-time academic program.

JD STUDENTS WITH ADVISING REQUIREMENTS

Students who have been informed that they must have their schedules approved prior to registration must follow these steps:

1. Review the semester course schedule and scheduling notes, list of required and recommended courses, and any additional requirements as imposed by the Academic Standards Committee or Law Student Services. You may confirm your requirements by viewing your program evaluation report. See Academic Program Evaluation Report section, on page 8, for instructions for viewing your report.
2. Make an appointment with the associate dean or director for student services by visiting Law Student Services or calling 442-6615. Please schedule an appointment for at least three school days prior to the start of your priority registration period.
3. Bring two copies of the completed Advising Agreement form to your appointment for approval. Once the form has been approved, the Registrar's Office will be instructed to grant you access to Web registration. Any changes to your schedule require prior approval.
4. Register for courses online. See the Law School Web Registration Instructions for step-by-step instructions.
5. Failure to enroll in all and only the approved courses will be considered a violation of the Standards of Student Conduct and could be grounds for dismissal and/or may trigger the imposition of late fees.

Students who complete these steps in a timely fashion will maximize their course selection and scheduling options.

JD STUDENT ACADEMIC ADVISING NOTES

Fall 2008 full-time admits (with the exception of students in the HLP program) are required to take Constitutional Law I in the fall 2009 semester. Constitutional Law II is to be taken in the spring 2010 semester. Students are advised to take at least 3 required courses in their fall 2009 semester including: Constitutional Law I, Evidence or another 4-unit class, Criminal Procedure I, and/or Appellate Advocacy to the extent that there is room in the fall sections (see note #3 on page 20). Note that all Fall 2008 admits MUST take Appellate Advocacy in the fall or spring of their second year.

Fall 2008 HLP admits are encouraged, but not required, to enroll in 3-5 units during their fall apprenticeships. HLP students may add a sixth unit only with prior approval from the HLP Committee.

Fall 2008 part-time admits are required to take Constitutional Law I, Property I, and Criminal Law in the fall 2009 semester. Students will be required to take Constitutional Law II and Property II in the spring 2010 semester. Part-time students seeking to take 11 units are advised to take Appellate Advocacy (see note #3 on page 20). Note that all Fall 2008 admits MUST take Appellate Advocacy in the fall or spring of their second year. Web registration is not available to Fall 2008 part-time admits. They must submit registration forms. Students wanting to deviate from the recommended schedule will need approval from the Director or Associate Dean for Student Services.

Students who decide not to enroll in the fall 2009 term must complete a Withdrawal from Law School form, or Request for Leave of Absence form. In addition, if they have already registered, they must drop their courses via GGU4YOU or submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office by Friday, August 28, 2009, to withdraw from courses and receive a full refund of tuition charges. Term fees are non-refundable once the term has started on Monday, August 17.

Upon completion of their first year, students are expected to select their own schedules, and they are encouraged to sign up for an academic advising appointment in Law Student Services to plan their academic careers. Students must complete 88 units to graduate, including 57 required units and 31 elective units. Students are advised to consult the Schedules & Course Descriptions section of the Student Handbook http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook and this Web page www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_records_registration/course_descriptions/jd_required_courses for additional information and assistance.

WAIVER OF JD PROGRAM RULES

All JD students are enrolled in either a "full-time" or "part-time" academic program. Full-time students may enroll in a maximum of 16 units per fall or spring semester, as long as they comply with the ABA employment limitations set forth in ABA Standard 304(f) as described on page 6 under "JD Student Employment Limitations". Part-time students may enroll in a maximum of 12 units per fall or spring semester. Students in both types of programs may enroll in a maximum of 8 units in the summer session, except for students studying abroad and those in the Honors Lawyering Program. Students who want to enroll in overload units for their program types must first complete a Petition for Waiver of JD Program Rules form and submit it to the director for student services for approval. Registration for overload units will not be processed unless the approved petition form is on file with the Law School Registrar's Office. Students requiring a waiver of rules may not register for overload units online via GGU4YOU. Please note that these enrollment maximums do not relate to the requirements for eligibility for financial aid or VA benefits. Financial aid and VA benefit eligibility is based on students' term enrollment status classifications, not their program types.

WAIT-LIST INFORMATION

When a course section is full, students who request enrollment may be wait-listed for that section. Students who are on a wait-list are not enrolled in the course and are not charged for it until or unless a seat becomes available and they add the course. Wait-listed students will be notified by e-mail if a seat in the course section becomes available before the first day of instruction for the term. This message will be sent to the e-mail address on file with the Registrar's Office. Because there may be other students eager to enroll, a time limit will be set for the notified student to add the course. Students who are notified there is a seat available may add the course via GGU4YOU if they have no restrictions that would prevent them from doing so, or they may submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law School Registrar's Office. If a student does not add the course by the deadline given, their permission to enroll will expire and they will be removed from the wait-list. Once instruction for the term has begun, the wait-list no longer applies and students may enroll in a wait-listed course only with the instructor's approval.

It is recommended that wait-listed students attend the first class meeting and bring a Schedule Change Request form. Some instructors will not accept students who have missed the first class meeting without an excused absence. Sometimes instructors will allow wait-listed students to enroll if there are additional seats available in the classroom, but some sections are limited to a certain capacity by other considerations. If the instructor will sign a student's Schedule Change Request form, and there is space in the classroom, the student may be enrolled in the course section regardless of the student's wait-list status.

Students who are wait-listed for a course and have decided not to enroll in it should remove themselves from the wait-list online or notify the Law School Registrar's Office as soon as possible at lawreg@ggu.edu.

ACADEMIC PROGRAM EVALUATION REPORT

The Registrar's Office maintains the Law School's academic program requirements in the student information system. Academic program requirements include required GPAs, required total units, required courses, any conditions imposed by the Academic Standards Committee, and number of elective units needed. Students can view their academic program evaluation report on the Web using GGU4YOU. It is a useful tool for schedule planning prior to registration. To view their reports, students should login to GGU4YOU, click on the "Student" tab menu and then "Evaluate Degree Programs". Once students have registered for their last term, their report statuses should say "Pending (Anticipated complete)". Students with questions may visit the Registrar's Office, room 3310, or call us at 415-442-6620.

ENROLLMENT STATUS CLASSIFICATIONS FOR FINANCIAL AID PURPOSES

The Law School classifies students' enrollment status based academic level and the number of units in which they are enrolled in a given term. These enrollment status classifications are used for verification of enrollment for loan deferment purposes and for financial aid eligibility. It is possible for part-time evening students to be enrolled in 12 units and therefore be classified as full-time for financial aid purposes.

Fall & Spring terms	Overload	Full-time	Three-quarter Time*	Half-time	Less than half time
JD Students	17 units or more	12-16 units	9-11 units	6-11 units	5 units or less
LLM Students	13 units or more	8-12 units	5-7 units	4-7 units	3 units or less

Summer term	Overload	Full-time	Three-quarter Time*	Half-time	Less than half time
JD Students	9 units or more	6-8 units	5 units	3-5 units	2 units or less
LLM Students	7 units or more	4-6 units	3 units	2-3 units	1 unit or less

* The three-quarter time enrollment status is used only for VA benefits determination.

INCOMPLETE COURSES

Where exigent circumstances arise that prevent a student from fulfilling the requirements of a course by the end of the term, the student may submit a Petition for Incomplete Course. To receive approval for an incomplete, JD students must obtain the approval of the director for student services, and LLM and SJD students must obtain the approval of their program director. The instructor's approval also is required for courses NOT graded by a final exam. First-year JD students generally are not granted approval for incomplete courses. They should immediately consult with the associate dean or director for student services should they feel the need to petition for an incomplete. For more information on petitioning for an incomplete course please refer to the Student Handbook which can be found on the law school website at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_student_services/student_handbook .

If a student's petition for an incomplete course is successful, the student should not drop the course.

Students who are completing a course by re-enrolling should not register for the course again. Instead, they should fill out a Notice of Intent to Complete Course form and submit it to the Law School Registrar's Office. Students will be enrolled in their preferred course section, provided there is room, at no tuition charge. Consequently, units for courses students are completing under this policy are not included in calculating their cost of attendance for financial aid purposes. Students who are enrolling only in courses they are attempting to complete and who are not enrolling in any new courses will be charged the fees for the term, but no tuition.

EFFECT OF INCOMPLETE COURSES ON GRADUATION

If a student has an outstanding incomplete course at the end of the term after which he or she intends to graduate, he or she must resolve it by the deadline indicated below or the student's graduation will be postponed until the term in which the course is completed. The deadline for resolving an incomplete grade before it is changed to a "W" for "Withdrawn" is not altered by these deadlines.

SPECIAL MATERIALS & LITIGATION PROGRAM SUPPORT FEES

Every semester the School of Law assesses Special Materials fees in courses that require an excessive amount of duplicated materials.

Similar fees are also charged in courses that involve regular use of audio-visual equipment, rental of off-campus facilities or use of the Moot Court Room. With respect to courses in the Litigation Program, the following fee schedule has been designed to distribute the costs among program participants:

Litigation Course	Fee
Trial Advocacy	$50.00
Basic Skills/Substantive Courses	$20.00
Mock Trial Course and Competition	$50.00
Advanced Skills/Practicum Courses	$10.00

The Trial Advocacy fee will defray the extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist with the course.

The Mock Trial fee will defray extraordinary costs including rental of audio-visual equipment, bailiffs and courtroom security, and expenses for non-faculty attorneys who assist in evaluating student work and costs associated with participation in inter-school trial competitions.

Notes on fees

1. In the event that a litigation course may also require duplication of special materials, the cost of the special materials will be added to the litigation program support fee.
2. All fees will appear on the students' Statement of Charges and are payable to the University Cashier at the time of registration.
3. When a student drops a course that has a Special Materials Fee, the student may receive a credit for the Special Materials Fee only if the course is dropped on or before Friday, August 28, 2009. The special materials must be returned by the same date in an unused condition to Associate Dean Greg Egertson. If these conditions are met, Dean Egertson will then approve the request for a credit for the Special Materials Fee and will instruct Student Accounting Services to make an account adjustment.

FAMILY EDUCATIONAL RIGHTS & PRIVACY ACT (FERPA)

The Family Educational Rights & Privacy Act affords students certain rights with respect to the privacy of their education records. One of the rights under FERPA is the right to request non-disclosure of “directory information” without written authorization. For more detailed information about what the university classifies as “Directory Information” or about students’ rights under FERPA, and to obtain a privacy request form, see the university’s website at www.ggu.edu/about/UniversityPolicies/PrivacyPolicy, or go to the Department of Education website at www.ed.gov, or refer to 34 CFR 99.

SCHEDULE CHANGES

Every term, changes are made to the course schedule after it is published. For example, courses are added or canceled, class meeting days or times are changed, and instructors are added. Changes made after the course schedule is published will be posted in a running list as a PDF document on the course schedule page for the term on the law school website http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/law_records_registration/class_schedules.

After the course schedule is posted on the website, it will be updated as changes are made. Consequently, the online schedule on the Web will be the most current.

CLASSROOM ASSIGNMENTS

Classroom assignments are not included in this schedule. While room assignments may be printed on students’ Statement of Charges, students should be aware that classrooms are subject to change. Students should check the signs posted on the 2nd and 3rd floors at the start of the term to verify classrooms. After the start of the term, classroom changes will be posted outside the room from which the course section is being moved, and on the Registrar’s bulletin board in the 3rd floor West corridor. Students enrolled in the class will be notified of changes by email on the day before, whenever possible.

FALL 2009 COURSE PLANNING GUIDE

Below is a course-planning guide for the fall 2009 term that specifies dates when classes are in session as well as holidays, make-up days, recesses and examination periods.

For purposes of planning fall 2009 classes, please be aware of the following:

1. The fall 2009 term contains 14 complete weeks of instruction.
2. Regularly scheduled classes DO NOT MEET on the following holidays:
Labor Day Holiday Monday, September 7
3. In order to make-up the missed class periods due to holidays, the following make-up days have been scheduled within the fall 2009 term.

Monday, November 23 Make-up for Labor Day Holiday on September 7 (Monday classes meet)

Note: Make-up days listed above do not apply to courses offered in the LLM (Taxation) Program.

5. Final examination period: Tuesday, December 1, through Saturday, December 12, 2009.

Final exam dates for the LLM (Taxation) classes will be posted in the fall 2009 LLM (Taxation) course schedule on page 18.

FALL 2009 NEW COURSES COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

LAW 732A Advanced Appellate Practice (2 units)

Students will write briefs and orally argue real cases pending in California appellate courts. Actual trial court transcripts in civil and criminal cases will be examined and used as the bases for presenting these arguments. Class discussion will focus on practical strategies for winning appeals and writs. Prerequisites: Appellate Advocacy, Civil Procedure II, Criminal Procedure I.

LLM 301A Comparative International Tax (2 units)

This seminar compares current tax law in countries from all parts of the developed and developing world. The course will explore similarities and differences among countries' income and other tax systems and identify the implications for tax practice. Using a structural framework, the course materials include recent cases and commentaries. The seminar will also assess national tax regimes in light of international tax treaty requirements and models (OECD, UN, EU, WTO, etc.).

The instructor, Dr. Nancy Yonge, has nearly 20 years of international tax experience in the U.S. and abroad. She has advised governments in developing countries on tax structure and administration.

LAW 818B Comparative Civil Procedure (2 units)

This course compares civil proceedings in common law (US, England) and civil law (Italy, Germany, with references to Japan) systems, mainly focusing on the following issues: (i) the fact-finding process; (ii) the law of evidence; (iii) the application of the law of evidence to facts; and (iv) the application of substantive law to (proven) facts. These issues will be addressed during the course, focusing on similarities existing among those proceedings, digging into some of the main devices concerning fact-finding and evidence. The course is intended to provide students and future international lawyers and scholars with tools to manage transnational litigations and arbitrations, and think about different legal systems in a comparative perspective, through the theory and practice of civil procedure and civil litigation. Students will write one final paper (approximately 20 pages).

LAW 858C Evolving Role of In-House Counsel (2 units)

Today, corporate general counsel and law departments face new responsibilities, heightened expectations and unprecedented challenges. In-house counsel is driven by corporate management, evolving client expectations regarding legal services, trends in the external legal marketplace and the changing legislative and regulatory landscape. This class will look at the role of company lawyers and discuss best practices. The goal is to familiarize students with an analytical approach to issues in each of the following key areas: General Business Contracts; Corporate Governance; Corporate Compliance; Employment Law; Intellectual Property; Litigation; and Working With Outside Counsel. Pre-requisites: Contracts I & II, Business Associations (may be taken concurrently but will require paper registration); Recommended: Professional Responsibility, Employment Law, IP classes, Litigation classes.

LAW 870A Law & Leadership Seminar (0 units Fall, 1 unit Spring)

Leadership calls upon a broad variety of skills, including professionalism, networking, mentoring and public speaking. The goal of this seminar is to help students develop competency in a range of leadership skills and increase their appreciation for the variety of leadership roles people with legal training may achieve throughout their careers. The seminar will also explore ways for students to strengthen their own personal leadership style through self-assessment and skill development. Enrollment in this class is by application. The application process begins April 1 and ends on the last Monday of spring semester classes. Students must enroll in both the fall and spring semesters and successfully complete both to receive credit. Grading is credit/no credit.

Course descriptions for other courses are available on the GGU Law School website at www.ggu.edu/law/courses

SJD 910 SJD Residency - This course is for the first and second of the required two semesters of residency. Tuition is US$15,000 for each semester and all fees apply.

SJD 911 SJD Additional Residency - This course is for SJD students who require an extra semester of residency before sitting for their qualifying oral exam. Tuition is US$750 each term and all other fees apply.

SJD 920 SJD Candidacy (Local) - This course is for SJD students who have advanced to candidacy and will continue work on their dissertations in the San Francisco Bay Area. Tuition is US$750 each term and all fees apply.

SJD 921 SJD Candidacy (US non-local) - This course is for SJD students who have advanced to candidacy and will continue work on their dissertations in the United States but not in the San Francisco Bay Area. Tuition is US$0 and only the “Registration” fee and applicable "international student" fees apply.

SJD 922 SJD Candidacy (Non-US) - This course is for SJD students who have advanced to candidacy and will continue work on their dissertations outside of the United States. Tuition is US$0 and only the “Registration” fee applies.

SJD 931 SJD Dissertation Seminar - This course provides collaborative support, intellectual and scholarly context, and useful direction and practical assistance to students in the SJD program.

SJD 995 SJD Curricular Practical Training - Qualified SJD international students in valid visa status may obtain practical training by participating in clinical programs, legal internships and externships, and law clerk positions. Students must consult with Professor Chris Okeke, as well as with John Pluebell, before registering for this course.

FALL 2009 SCHEDULING NOTES

Classes starting at or after 4:00 p.m. and ending before 6:30 p.m. are considered both DAY and NIGHT division classes and are listed in both sections of the line schedule.

- 1. INDEPENDENT STUDY/DIRECTED STUDY/THESIS - These are all independent study courses: Independent Study in the JD program (1-2 units), and Directed Study (1-3 units) or Thesis (4-6 units) in the LLM programs. Please see the course descriptions online for more information; JD Independent Study Guidelines are available from Law Student Services. Interested students must complete a Petition for Independent Study form which requires approvals by the faculty member supervising the project and the Director for Law Student Services or the Director of their LLM program. Petition for Independent Study forms are available online or at the Law Registrar's Office. The signed petition form should be submitted with a Schedule Change Request form to enroll in this course. JD students may enroll in only one Independent Study per semester and may earn a maximum of 4 units in Independent Study.
- 2. PRACTICAL LEGAL WRITING – Students are recommended to take this course during their final semester of law school and may not take it without having completed Appellate Advocacy. Therefore, class enrollment is limited to students who will be classified as D3 or E4 when they enroll. Practical Legal Writing will have regular class meetings, as well as four required examinations over the course of the semester. Three of these exams will be 3 hours in length and 2 of them will be scheduled on Saturdays, October 3, and November 21. The law school's regular policies regarding rescheduling exams, which can be found on page 35 of this schedule, will apply. Students who receive exam accommodations, or who cannot take the examination at the scheduled time for a reason permitted under the Student Handbook rules on rescheduling, should notify the Exam Coordinator at (415) 369-5201, or lawexam@ggu.edu, by the reschedule deadline or as soon as possible to request that proper arrangements be made. PLEASE NOTE that the Registrar will assign students to sections in random order and will not honor requests for a particular instructor. Students may not transfer between sections.
- 3. APPELLATE ADVOCACY – This second year course should be taken after completing both semesters of Writing & Research and before enrolling in Practical Legal Writing (formerly Solving Legal Problems). Class sections are limited to 12 students each, so students are advised to register early. Students enrolling in this course should keep Shapo, et.al, Writing & Analysis in the Law (first year text). Prior to the first class, students must sign on to the course TWEN site (through Westlaw). The password is AppAdFall2009. The first reading assignment and information about course materials will be posted there. PLEASE NOTE that the Registrar will assign students to a particular class section on the day and time requested subject to space availability, and that once assigned students may not transfer between sections. Students should not take Appellate Advocacy with the instructor with whom they had first year Writing & Research. If that should be found to be the case the student will be moved to a different section scheduled at the same time. STUDENTS WHO DO NOT ATTEND THE FIRST CLASS MEETING WILL BE ADMINISTRATIVELY WITHDRAWN FROM THE COURSE. Students who need to petition for an incomplete must do so prior to the date that the final brief is due. Please contact Professor Rose (lrose@ggu.edu), Director of the Advanced Legal Writing Program, with any questions about the course content or schedule.

4. Field Placement Clinics: CIVIL FIELD PLACEMENT CLINIC, CRIMINAL LITIGATION CLINIC, and REAL ESTATE CLINIC are offered for 2 to 4 units, subject to the following requirements.

Eligibility for enrollment:

Students must be in good academic standing, and have completed at least 29 units or, have obtained the permission of the clinic instructor.

Students on academic probation may not enroll in a clinic without permission from the Dean for Student Services.

Hours per unit:

For each unit earned, students must work 45 hours at their placements, in addition to attending the seminar.

Mandatory attendance at clinic seminar:

The seminar for each clinic meets at least seven (7) times and more frequently at the discretion of the instructor and attendance is mandatory.

How and When to register:

Interested students MUST REGISTER DURING PRIORITY REGISTRATION for a clinic to be considered for a spot.

Registration includes completion of the "FIELD PLACEMENT CLINIC APPLICATION" form and submission of it with a current resume to the instructor or contact person listed for the clinic.

The application form is available on the Law Registrar's Office Forms page on the law school website.

The instructor will make final selections.

Students are well advised to discuss matters with the appropriate instructor in advance.

Professor Susan Rutberg is the Director of Externship Programs. Feel free to contact her at srutberg@ggu.edu or 415 442-6665 for advice regarding participation in any of the field placement clinics.

For further information, see the Clinic Student Handbook, available online at http://www.ggu.edu/school_of_law/academic_law_programs/practical_legal_training/clinical_programs/attachment/CLINIC_Student_Handbook.pdf

Civil Field Placement Clinic: Jennifer Wyllie-Pletcher jwpletcher@yahoo.com and Sue Schechter sschechter@law.berkeley.edu. Clinic applications should be submitted to Benjamin Mayr in the Faculty Center (Room 2333) or by email to bmayr@ggu.edu.

Criminal Litigation Clinic: Susan Leff at Leffs@hotmail.com. Clinic applications, with resume, should be submitted to Professor Susan Rutberg by email at srutberg@ggu.edu or by placing them in her mailbox in the Faculty Center (Room 2333).

Real Estate Clinic: Christine Tour-Sarkissian christine@tslo.com. Clinic applications with resume should be submitted to amira@tslo.com.

5. REAL ESTATE SEMINAR/CLINIC – The Real Estate Seminars, LAW 883T (Transactions) in the fall term, and LAW 883L (Litigation) in the spring term, each consist of 14 class meetings and 10 to 12 written assignments, for 3 units. The Fall Seminar covers drafting of co-ownership agreements, purchase and sale agreements and related documents, financing instruments, construction contracts, land use entitlement documents, commercial leases. The Spring Seminar deals with the same topics from a litigation perspective, and the drafting of appropriately related pleadings, from intake to post trial. Prerequisite for both seminars is completion of Property I & II.

The Real Estate Clinic (LAW 883) may be taken for 2, 3 or 4 units depending upon the number of hours spent at an approved law office (supplied by the school). Students enrolling in the Real Estate Clinic also must also be enrolled in the corresponding Real Estate Seminar and meet all of its requirements. For more information contact Professor Christine Tour-Sarkissian at christine@tslo.com. Clinic applications with resume should be submitted to amira@tslo.com.

6. CAPITAL POST CONVICTION DEFENSE CLINIC - Students interested in a hands-on clinical experience at the California Appellate Project (CAP) should enroll in this course. Clinic students will attend a mandatory weekly seminar at CAP, 101 Second Street, Suite 600, each Wednesday from 4:30 to 6:10 p.m., as part of the mentoring and training provided to the students who work as externs at CAP on capital cases. Each clinic student will attend the seminar and additionally work at CAP for 45 hours for each unit of credit. Students may take the clinic for 3 to 4 credits. For more information contact CAP Deputy Director Pat Kern at pkern@capsf.org or by phone at (415) 495-0500. Students must be in good academic standing and have completed at least 29 units. No student may enroll in more than one clinic or judicial externship per semester, and students who have had no clinical courses may receive preference over other students.
7. The ENVIRONMENTAL LAW & JUSTICE CLINIC (ELJC) is an in-house clinic, which provides students with intensive training and hands-on lawyering experience. Under close faculty supervision, students provide legal representation on matters addressing environmental justice issues. Clinic students are certified under State Bar of California rules to perform many of the tasks of an attorney: they interview clients, develop legal strategies, draft legal documents, and counsel clients. They also may appear at hearings and negotiate with opposing parties, depending on the Clinic's caseload. Students must have taken or concurrently take Evidence. Students also must have completed an environmental law course or have the instructors' waiver of this requirement. Special scheduling arrangements can be made on a case-by-case basis for night students.

Students who enroll in the Clinic must have the permission of the instructors (see last paragraph) and must concurrently enroll in the Environmental Law & Justice Seminar (Law 834G) for 3 units. Students must enroll in 1-3 clinic credits in addition to the seminar units; students enrolling for 1 clinic credit must work 10.5 hours/week; for 2 credits, 13.5 hours/week; for 3 credits, 17 hours/week. Students may take additional clinic units in subsequent semesters without re-enrolling in the Seminar.

Students who wish to enroll in the Clinic and Seminar should submit a resume and cover letter to Professors Helen Kang (hkang@ggu.edu), Deborah Behles (dbehles@ggu.edu) and to Fe Gonzales (fgonzales@ggu.edu) by June 1, 2009. Students applying for both the seminar and clinic need submit only one set of materials. Later applications will be considered if space permits. The Clinic offices are located at 62 First Street, Suite 240. See announcements in Law School News for additional application instructions.

8. The ENVIRONMENTAL LAW & JUSTICE SEMINAR is a required companion course to the Environmental Law & Justice Clinic, but it also may be taken by JD or LLM students who are not enrolling in the Clinic. The Seminar explores law and policy issues central to the environmental justice movement, focusing on matters that recur in the Clinic's representation of clients who are disproportionately impacted by pollution; explores the role of lawyers and their ethical responsibility in representing clients from communities overburdened by pollution; and provides skills training that students must master to become effective lawyers, focusing on skills that are necessary for the Clinic's caseload. Students enrolled in the Seminar by itself, without the Clinic component, will be required to fulfill a significant writing requirement.

Students who wish to enroll in the Seminar should submit a resume and cover letter to Professors Helen Kang (hkang@ggu.edu), Deborah Behles (dbehles@ggu.edu) and to Fe Gonzales (fgonzales@ggu.edu) by June 1, 2009. Students applying for both the seminar and clinic need submit only one set of materials. Priority will be given to students planning to participate in both the clinic and seminar. Later applications will be considered if space permits.

9. WOMEN'S EMPLOYMENT RIGHTS SEMINAR/CLINIC is an in-house clinic in which students handle real cases, representing low-income workers from diverse backgrounds in employment disputes in areas including unpaid wages, unemployment insurance, discrimination, workplace harassment, and family and medical leave. Responsibilities include staffing the clinic office and conducting casework. Students must have completed or be concurrently enrolled in Evidence. Prior or concurrent enrollment in Employment Law or Employment Discrimination is helpful but not required. This program is not limited to women students. Students with fluency in Spanish or Cantonese are encouraged to apply. Clinic students will be certified by the State Bar of California, which requires completion or concurrent enrollment in Evidence. Special scheduling arrangements are made on a case-by-case basis for night students.

Students may enroll for 1-3 clinic credits; 1 credit requires 10 hours/week at the clinic office; 2 credits require 12.5 hours/week; 3 credits require 15 hours/week. Enrollment is limited and priority is given to 3rd year students and those who can enroll in 2-3 units. Applications will be considered on a rolling basis. Applications (cover letter and resume) must be submitted to Professor Marci Seville (mseville@ggu.edu) and Hina Shah (hshah@ggu.edu) and will be processed on a “rolling basis”.

New students MUST enroll in the Women’s Employment Rights Seminar (Law 885S) for 3 units as well. Students, including LLM students, may enroll for the Seminar only, with the permission of the instructor.

WERC offices are located at 62 First Street, Suite 240. See www.ggu.edu/law/werc, or announcements in Law School News, for additional information.

10. JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP SEMINAR - The seminar for the Judicial Externship course will be divided between 3 different days. The first of these 3 dates will be on Friday, August 14, 2009, 9 am – 3 pm. The second seminar date will be 3-4 weeks into the semester, and the last date will be at the end of the term, both on dates which will be determined at the first class meeting. Attendance at ALL seminar sessions is mandatory. The judicial externship program is offered for 2 to 13 units in the fall and spring terms and 2 to 8 units in the summer. No student may enroll in more than one clinic or judicial externship per semester. Students must have completed 40 units before enrolling in this course. Students must have a minimum GPA of 2.75 for federal court or appellate court externships or 2.5 for state trial court externships. Each student must work at least 45 hours per unit. These hours must extend over at least 10 weeks during the fall or spring terms or over at least 7 weeks during the summer term. The seminar class hours, or hours spent preparing for the seminar, are in addition to the required working hours. Students must secure a placement before the beginning of the semester, and the position must be pre-approved by Associate Dean Susanne Aronowitz or Jody Lerner, Director for Law Student Services. Interested students must pre-register for this course; registration includes submission of the "JUDICIAL EXTERNSHIP APPLICATION" which is due to either instructor by Monday, August 10, 2009. The application form can be downloaded from the Law Registrar’s web page under the “Law School Forms” link. Applications and inquiries should be directed to Associate Dean Susanne Aronowitz, at (415) 442-6625 or saronowitz@ggu.edu., or Jody Lerner, Director for Law Student Services, at (415) 442-6624 or jlerner@ggu.edu.
11. STREET LAW – Students interested in this program should contact Professor Thomas Nazario at the University of San Francisco, (415) 422-6832, or Nazario@usfca.edu for an interview before enrolling. As part of your teaching responsibilities in this program, students are required to attend a weekly seminar at USF every Thursday, from 3:30 to 5:45 p.m.
12. CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING – These courses are open only to LLM and SJD students holding F-1 student visas. The signature of the LLM/SJD Program Director or Adviser is required to register for this class. For information about CPT eligibility, contact John Pluebell, Assistant Director of Law International Student Services.
13. CURRICULAR PRACTICAL TRAINING – This course is open only to JD students holding F-1 student visas. The signature of the Associate Dean for Law Student Services or the Director for Law Student Services is required to register for this class. For information about CPT eligibility, contact Professor Chris Pagano, or John Pluebell, Assistant Director of Law International Student Services.

14. SPECIAL PROBLEMS courses are writing-intensive problem-solving courses focusing on bar exam subjects. These courses are recommended for students who wish to develop their exam-writing skills. In order to enroll in a Special Problems course, you must have completed the prerequisite course in that subject. For Special Problems: Civil Procedure you must have completed Civil Procedure I and II, for Special Problems: Contracts & Torts you must have completed Contracts I & II and Torts I & II. For Special Problems: Criminal Law & Procedure the prerequisites are Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure I. For Special Problems: Evidence the prerequisite is Evidence. Students who have previously taken a Special Problems course may not enroll in a second Special Problems course covering the same subject(s) areas, but they may enroll in another Special Problems course. Students may not take more than one Special Problems class in the same term and no more than two total. Students found to be enrolled in more than one Special Problems course will be required to drop, or they will be administratively dropped, from all but one of them. Exams may be scheduled during the term for these courses at the discretion of the instructor and may be on Saturdays or Sundays. Students on the ‘wait list’ for this course are encouraged to attend the first class because there are occasional opportunities to obtain the seat of someone who is dropped from the course.
15. ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH: eSEARCH §LS1 - This course section is open only to upper division JD students.
- ADVANCED LEGAL RESEARCH: eSEARCH §LS2 - This course section is open only to Law Review or Environmental Law Journal (ELJ) students. Enrollment in this section will require the approval of the instructor and must be done with a paper form, it can not be done online. Students must attend 8 designated regularly scheduled eSearch classes on Wednesdays at 4:30. They need to attend the first session and will be given a separate syllabus and course description at that time.
16. STRATEGIES OF LEGAL WRITING - Students registering for this course will need to have the permission of the instructor, Mohamed Nasralla, in advance. Students must have taken all law school required courses with the exception of Practical Legal Writing. The final deadline for submitting course work in this class is the last day of the final exam period, December 12, 2009.
17. ADVANCED LEGAL WRITING – Appellate Advocacy is a pre-requisite for Advanced Legal Writing. Students may not take this course concurrently with Appellate Advocacy. Students who received a grade of C or lower in Appellate Advocacy should contact Professor Schaaf (tschaaf@ggu.edu) before registering for this course. This 1-unit course will have 10 class meetings.
18. INTERMEDIATE LEGAL WRITING – This course focuses on logical organization, legal analysis, grammar, punctuation, and style. It does not cover legal research or exam writing. Enrollment in this course requires the consent of the Associate Dean for Law Student Services. Please call (415) 442-6615 or email lawstudentservices@ggu.edu to make an appointment to discuss this option before or during the priority registration period. Writing & Research I & II are prerequisites for Intermediate Legal Writing. Students may not take this course concurrently with or after completing Appellate Advocacy. Students should keep the first-year legal writing text: Shapo, et. al, Writing & Analysis in the Law. This 1-unit course will have 10 class meetings.

19. LAW REVIEW WRITERS, LAW REVIEW ASSOCIATE EDITORS, and LAW REVIEW BOARD – Open to Law Review Members only. Membership on Law Review is determined in two ways: by first-year grades (top 15%) or through a writing competition that is held during the middle of the spring semester of the first year. Students who will have completed 29 units of first-year required courses by the end of the spring semester (full-time first-year or part-time second-year students), are eligible to participate in the writing competition or to be invited to join by virtue of class ranking. Membership requires a two year commitment. During the Fall semester, a weekly mandatory Law Review meeting will be held on Fridays at 4:00-5:30 PM.

Members who are completing their first year on Law Review must sign up for LAW 861A Law Review Writer (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Members who are completing their second year on Law Review, but who are not on the Law Review Board, must sign up for LAW 861C Law Review Associate Editors (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

Members who are on the Law Review Board, must sign up for LAW 861D Law Review Board (2 units/fall & 2 units/spring). This is required of all Law Review Board members during the fall and spring terms.

Students who wish to drop Law Review must properly notify the Law Registrar's Office in writing. Oral notification is insufficient. Students who drop Law Review after the drop deadline, August 28, will not have their tuition refunded except as described in the approved withdrawal policy. As an alternative, students may substitute the Independent Study course for the Law Review units by submitting a Schedule Change Request form. To do this, students must find a faculty adviser, and get their signature, and that of the Director for Law Student Services, on a Petition for Independent Study form before dropping Law Review and adding Independent Study. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in Law Review.

20. ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL (ELJ) - Membership on ELJ is determined in two ways: by first year grades (top 10%) or through an application process held every April and October. Mandatory seminar sessions of not more than 12 hours will be scheduled during the first semester of membership.

ELJ Writers must register for LAW 862A ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS I (2 units) in their first semester and for LAW 862B ENVIRONMENTAL LAW JOURNAL WRITERS II (1 unit) in their second semester of membership.

ELJ Associate Editors (not members of the ELJ Editorial Board) must register for LAW 862C ELJ ASSOCIATE EDITORS (2 units/fall, 1 unit/spring).

ELJ Editorial Board Members must register for LAW 862D ELJ EDITORIAL BOARD (2 units/first semester, 2 units/second semester).

Students who wish to drop ELJ must properly notify the Law Registrar's Office in writing. Oral notification is insufficient. Students who drop ELJ after the drop deadline, August 28, will not have their tuition refunded except as described in the approved withdrawal policy. As an alternative, students may substitute the Independent Study course for the ELJ units by submitting a Schedule Change Request form. To do this, students must find a faculty adviser, get their signature and that of the director for law student services, and file a Petition for Independent Study form before dropping Environmental Law Journal and adding Independent Study. Students will not be allowed to petition for an incomplete grade in Environmental Law Journal.

21. COMPETITION - MOCK TRIAL – This is the basic Mock Trial course. Advanced Mock Trial is offered in the Spring term and is open only to students selected to represent GGU in competition. The Mock Trial course contains seven formal classroom sessions held in the Mock Trial Courtroom, Room 6224. The time for these classroom sessions is 5:30 to 9:10 p.m. Eight sessions of the course consist of trials, which are usually held at the Hall of Justice, 850 Bryant St., in San Francisco. Students must be present at the Hall of Justice at 5:15 p.m. and trials begin shortly thereafter. All trials will end at 9:45 p.m. Inquiries regarding this course should be directed to Professor Bernard Segal.

22. COMPETITIONS/MOOT COURTS - Participation in these programs is limited to students chosen for participation in accordance with a selection process administered by the faculty adviser/coach. Students can enroll without explicit permission but may continue only with the approval of the instructor supervising the program. The Faculty Advisers/Coaches are:

Environmental Law Moot Court: Kristin Henry, kristin.henry@sierraclub.org

Jessup International Law Moot Court: Remigius Chibueze, rchibueze@ggu.edu

23. COURTROOM AS THEATER - This course will meet on Fridays in two class sections, LS1 at 11:20 a.m.- 1:00 p.m., and LS2 at 1:20-3:00 p.m. Students should enroll in section LS1 and should attend the first class on Friday, August 21, at 11:20 a.m. At that class, the instructors will divide the enrolled students into the two sections, and they will notify the Registrar's Office of which students will be moved to section LS2. After the first class, any student wishing to enroll will need the signature of the instructor. Attendance at the first class is mandatory. Students not present will be administratively dropped from the class. Students on the 'wait list' for this course are encouraged to attend the first class because there are occasional opportunities to obtain the seat of someone who is dropped from the course.

Students who find that they can not register for section LS1 of Courtroom as Theater due to a conflict with the morning sections of Evidence or Business Associations should submit a Schedule Change Request form to the Law Registrar's Office to be manually enrolled in the afternoon section.

24. TRIAL ADVOCACY – Although Evidence is listed as a prerequisite for Trial Advocacy, and that is preferred, the two courses also may be taken concurrently.

FINAL EXAM: The final exam for Trial Advocacy will be the trial of a complete case by a team of two students against another pair of students. These “final exam” trials will be held at the end of the semester on specific dates to be announced later. Trials are held either at the Hall of Justice or the Civil Courthouse in San Francisco.

Students enrolling or planning to enroll in Trial Advocacy should be aware that attendance at the first class meeting is mandatory. Registered students absent from the first class without a compelling reason may be dropped from the course. Students on the wait list must attend the first class meeting if they hope to get a seat in the class.

25. JD enrollment in the night sections of APPELLATE ADVOCACY, BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS, CONSTITUTIONAL LAW I, WILLS & TRUSTS, and PRACTICAL LEGAL WRITING, will be limited to part-time evening students until noon on Monday, July 6. Full-time day students should register for a day section, or may enroll in an evening section, on a space available basis, on or after July 6. Wait lists for these evening sections will also not be available to full-time day students until Monday, July 6.

26. BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS, EVIDENCE, and WILLS & TRUSTS - Students are encouraged not to take more than one 4-unit required course at a time.

27. BUSINESS ASSOCIATIONS - The night section of Business Associations will require 5 additional class meetings. These classes are scheduled for Friday nights on August 28, September 11, September 25, October 9, and October 23.

28. WILLS & TRUSTS - The night section of Wills & Trusts will require 5 additional class meetings. These classes are scheduled for Saturdays, August 29, September 26, October 10, October 24, and November 14 at 9:00 AM-12:30 PM.

29. CRIMINAL PROCEDURE II – this class will not meet on Wednesday, August 19. The first class meeting will be on Wednesday, August 26. A make-up class has been scheduled on Friday, August 28 at 6:30-9:10.
30. PRE-BAR BAR REVIEW - This is a tuition-free course offered to all students in their last two semesters of law school. Professor Stafford is a bar preparation expert. This course is included in the schedule for information purposes only and not for registration. Interested students in their last year should go to the first class. The start date will be Friday, August 28.
31. CONSORTIUM OF BAY AREA LAW SCHOOLS - Golden Gate University School of Law is part of a consortium of five law schools, including University of San Francisco School of Law, Santa Clara University School of Law, UC Davis Law School, and Boalt Hall (UC Berkeley). Upper-division students who are interested in taking a course at any of these institutions must complete a Transfer of Units form and submit it with a course description of the course they want to take to the director for law student services. If permission is given, the student must register for this Consortium course, LAW 701, and then complete a Consortium Agreement form (available at the Law Registrar's Office). Tuition is paid to Golden Gate University, not to the host school where the consortium class is taken.
- If Consortium classes are dropped, remember that they must be dropped at both schools.
32. WRONGFUL CONVICTIONS – In lieu of a final examination, students in the Wrongful Convictions: Causes and Remedies seminar have the opportunity to do law reform work in conjunction with the national Innocence Project.
33. LEGAL METHODS is a required course for certain second year students as set forth in the Student Handbook. Students who are required to take Legal Methods in the fall term will be notified by the Law Student Services Office.
34. GRADUATE LEGAL WRITING & RESEARCH is a required course in the LLM (US) program and priority will be given to LLM (US) students in registering for this course. Students in other LLM or SJD programs may enroll on a space available basis at the start of the term with the signature of the instructor.
35. HLP INDEPENDENT STUDY - This 1-unit course is open only to students in the Honors Lawyering Program who are completing their apprenticeship outside the Bay Area and who need an extra unit for financial aid purposes. All rules and procedures regarding Independent Study apply to this course.
36. LAW & LEADERSHIP SEMINAR - JD students entering their 2nd or 3rd year may submit an application to take this 1-unit course. Students accepted will enroll for both the fall and spring terms. Grades will be entered and credit earned after completion of both semesters. Students will register for the course for 0 units in the fall and 1 unit in the spring term. This class will be taught by M. Benedetto, A. Dalfen, S. Aronowitz, C. Fitzgibbons, R. Van Cleave and E. Christiansen and will meet four times during the term. For the Fall 2009 term the class will meet on Fridays, September 11, October 23 and November 13 at 2:45-4:45 PM and once at noon for one hour on a date to be announced later.
37. CA ENVIRONMENTAL & NATURAL RESOURCES LAW - This course for Fall 2009 will include a more detailed case study of law and policy issues concerning urban parkland within the California State Parks system.

Exam dates for courses in the LLM (Tax) Program are listed in the line schedule on page 18, and all LLM (Tax) exams will be at 6:30 PM.

Any changes made in this schedule of final examinations after publication of the schedule will come from the office of the Law Registrar. Revised schedules will be posted on the Law School website Course Schedules page for Fall 2009.

ADVANCE EXAM RESCHEDULING

Students requesting an advance rescheduling of examinations must submit an Exam Rescheduling Form to the exam coordinator in Room 3342 by 6:30 P.M. Friday, November 6, 2009, and then only under the following circumstances:

- i. A student has two School of Law examinations that are scheduled to start within a 23-hour period (not including take home exams and first-year midterms);
- ii. A student has three School of Law examinations on three consecutive days (not including take home exams);
- iii. A student's religious beliefs prohibit the taking of an examination at the scheduled time;
- iv. Student participation in a law school competition or course work for which the student is receiving academic credit.

FALL 2009 SCHEDULE OF FINAL EXAMS

The examination coordinator will determine which exam to move in the case of situation 1 or 2, above. If more than one exam is rescheduled, the exams normally are kept in the same order.

Exams will not be rescheduled for vacations, airplane tickets, family events, business conflicts, or conferences. In addition, School of Law exams will not be rescheduled due to conflicts with exams at other law schools or other programs in the university.

Exceptions to this policy might be granted (with timely and appropriate documentation) for the wedding of an immediate family member (parent, sibling, child) IF the student has a role in the ceremony AND the student has a direct time conflict.

Students are prohibited from discussing exam reschedule requests with their instructors. All exam reschedule requests or questions must be directed to the examination coordinator.

(See the on-line Student Handbook Examination Procedures for further information.)

Students may request a decision on an exam rescheduling question before registering or before the last day to drop for 100% tuition refund.

ExamSoft

All students are eligible to take their exams on their laptop. No additional registration or fee is necessary, but, the software must be installed prior to the student's first exam date. For minimum system requirements, go to www.examssoft.com/ggulaw. Installation and login instructions will be posted in Law School News and on the Law School website. All other communications will be sent through the email address on file with the Law Registrar. Please confirm that this address is working and correct.
