

Join us for a Family Limited-Partnership Litigation Lecture

The Golden Gate University School of Taxation Association of Tax Professionals is proud to present the third in a series of technical expert lectures. This event will feature GGU adjunct instructor Kyle Martin and longtime, now retired adjunct professor Joseph Stemach. Both are estate-tax attorneys and will speak on recent developments in family limited-partnership litigation.

Recent Developments in Family Limited-Partnership Litigation

featuring Attorneys Kyle Martin and Joseph Stemach

Thursday, September 16, 2004

12-1:30 pm

536 Mission Street, San Francisco, room 525

Cost: $20, lunch included

Agenda:

12 pm Reception

12:15 pm Lunch

12:30-1:30 pm Presentation, Q&A

RSVP by September 13, 2004 to tax@ggu.edu or 415-442-7880 (space is limited)

Eligible for one hour of MCLE/CPE credit

GGU Association of Tax Professionals Host Committee:
Jose Luis Espinoza, Navneet Gautam, Andrew Holtz, Amy Yuen

The Golden Gate University School of Taxation Association of Tax Professionals presents lunchtime technical experts throughout the year in January, February, May, September, October, November and December.

GOLDEN GATE UNIVERSITY

Educating Professionals
Since 1901